We the class of 1968 do dedicate this the 1968 CRITERION, the final yearbook of Jefferson High School, to a man who has helped not only our class but all high school classes. It is with great pride that we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Harold K. Steiner who has been our class sponsor, teacher, and friend throughout our Junior and Senior years.

As our sponsor he spent much private time on our class activities. As our teacher he enlightened us with his knowledge and made the recommendations we needed so badly. As our friend Mr. Steiner gave us companionship and advice when we felt alone and depressed.

We Dedicate

We thank him for stimulating our potential to become the leaders of tomorrow and for believing in us so that we could believe in ourselves. In appreciation of his time and personal contact with us, we do dedicate this 1968 CRITERION to Mr. Harold K. Steiner.

The final cross country season for the Jefferson Hornets was a very successful one. Our harriers finished first in the Southwestern Dayton District for the second consecutive year; first in the Preble County Conference for the fourth consecutive year; second in the Lowell Thomas Invitational; and in the state of Ohio, the Jefferson team came in a very fine tenth place.

In winning the Preble County meet, Jefferson became the only school in Preble County to win four consecutive athletic championships in varsity competition. Our congratulations go to Coach Bowser and the team members.

The Hornets finished the final season of Varsity Basketball competition with a 7-14 record. But considering the team lost four games by one point and two by three points the final campaign was a successful one. The Hornets rallied to win the final four games held in the Jefferson gym by beating Twin Valley South, 81-69; Monroe, 58-53; Gettysburg, 85-55; and Reily, 71-68.

All-County forward, Tom Kessler, tied the school record for the most points in one game by scoring 38 points against Gettysburg on February 10, 1968.

All-County guard, Craig Beisner, scored 37 points against Preble Shawnee on December 8, 1967.

"EPITAPH TO A HORNET"

For fifty years at Jefferson a Hornet played the game;
 He traveled near and traveled far to glorify the name.
 On cinder tracks, in wind and rain, he struggled to succeed;
 On hardwood courts, against mighty odds, he fought to keep the lead.
 On dusty diamonds, cross the land, he dueled with glove and bat;
 With flashing feet, up hill, down dale, he strove to "bell the cat."
 On sturdy shoulders the big "J" rode, encased in a golden ring;
 And many a foe can still recall, the pain of the Hornet's sting.
 Soon now the Hornet will pass from the scene,
 The fight song will echo no more;
 The uniform gathered and put on the shelf,
 No longer will hear the crowd roar.
 So we join to salute the athlete, who wore the Gold and Black;
 And bore the name of Jefferson High on diamond, court, and track.

And when in fleeting moments, you reminisce
 with pride;

Remember then, this simple phrase--

"He was a Hornet, and he tried."

THE 1968 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Senior class was entertained to the enchanting theme of "Southern Plantation" by the Junior class at the 1968 Junior-Senior Prom. Following the theme, the gymnasium was transformed into a beautiful garden of blooming magnolia trees and arches thickly covered with flowers and leaves. ## THE PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1968

June 4, 1993

Dear Mrs. Konnert,

I felt this was as good a time as any to write my annual letter to you, especially since the Class of '68 held its 25th reunion last night.

I had a hard time getting a jet out of Sidney, Australia, where I had just completed a safari in the Bush hunting giant jack-rabbits on my super-charged mini-bike.

As I arrived late, no seats were available on the semi-annual flight between Sidney and Bombay, India. I decided that the only solution was to speak with the mayor, and who should that be but the notorious playboy, the Honorable (?) WILLIAM S. SIMS, alias Sid. I finally succeeded.

Howsomever, I was forced to sit in the only available space - with the stewardesses, CAROLYN TURNER and SHARON WARD, who are now completing their twenty-third consecutive year of service, a new aviation record.

Dr. PATRICIA STRASZHEIM, a well-known analytic chemist, boarded out jet during a short stop-over in Bombay.

Our flight then went to Moscow, where we picked up Ambassador KATHY LONGENECKER and her translator DIANA BATTISTA.

The next stop was Paris where a tour of the city occupied my five-hour layover. My first visit, to Le Cafe' Blanc, provided a great surprise - soup in my lap, dropped by the maitre d', STEPHEN J. KENDALL.

After an otherwise delicious dinner, I visited the Louvre, where I saw STEVE KNIGHT displaying his newest masterpiece, THE MOANING LISA.

As I finished my tour and returned to the airport, a jet from Kenya, Africa, landed. As the passengers disembarked from the jet, we all noticed two nuns among the group. As they boarded our flight, I recognized them as Sisters CYNTHIA PORTANOVA and REDIA BREWSTER, who had been serving as missionaries in the great, dark jungle.

Shortly afterwards we took off on the trans-Atlantic flight. During that time we were entertained by a movie starring none other than JACK YOUNT and PATSY SUGGS in Paramount's latest release, "The Plumber's Friend."

Our movie was interrupted by the sighting of a small craft on the water below. The plane descended to circle it and, whipping out my binoculars, I surveyed the craft realizing that the occupants were BOB (Adolf) EALES and MARK HOFFMAN! Seeing who they were, we left hurriedly.

Arriving in New York, we passed over Shea Stadium and noticed a large crowd. The stewardess informed me that the Women's World Championship Tag Team matches were being held, with VIRGINIA and VIOLET ISAACS defending their world's title for the eighth time.

Shortly thereafter we landed at Kennedy International Airport where I was collared by the Custom's Inspection Officer, CAROLYN MOORE, while trying to leave with my baggage. After belatedly checking through Customs, I immediately departed to the lounge where I awaited two former members of the Class of 1968, the First Lady of the Country, the Former LINDA LAIRD, now affectionately known as Linda Bird, and Mrs. JOYCE POLLEY HANCOCK, wife of a prominent New York businessman. Immediately following their arrival, we boarded another plane.

Upon departing, I noticed the super-smooth take-off, accompanied by Unidentified Flying Objects hurtling throughout the interior of the plane. The flight to Wright Field was otherwise uneventful, until we landed, when all were again jostled and tossed about.

After an abrupt halt, we weren't surprised to find Pilot WALTER (Ace) SHILTS, and Co-pilot STEVEN MILLS stumbling from the cockpit.

As we left the plane, we were met by KEITH and SUZIE (WILCZYNSKI) WRIGHT, owners of the airport. They accompanied us to an awaiting bus, driven by none other than BARRY SMELSER, who safely (?) transported us to the Cross Country Hotel, on the outskirts of New Paris, run by RICK GREGG. The bellboy, BOB HINSHAW, took our baggage to our rooms while the maid, JOYCE COLE, finished the cleaning.

Exceedingly fatigued after the long journey, I rang for room service. The desk clerk, RITA SCOTT, took my order.

After an emotionally distressing delay of four hours, DEBBIE SHELLHORN, another fellow Jeffersonian, clamored into the room.

Upon completing a restful night's sleep, I toured the progressing city, stopping first at the Police Department. To my great surprise, who was chief of police but RICHARD (Fearless) FOSDICK with his deputy and side-kick JACK (Chester) SILVERS.

The professional beauticians, SANDY HORIGAN and CAROLYN JOHNSON, owned and operated Glamour Palace which was adjacent to the police station.

SUZANNE MILLS, owner of Animal Farm Clinic, was called on emergency to a local dude ranch and invited me to go along.

I received a profound shock when I realized the Head Dude was ROSEMARY HENN. Her bronco buster was PHYLLIS ROBINSON.

Contributing to the terror of the neighborhood was the farm of that Jolly Green Thumb, STEVE WESLER.

I returned to the hotel to prepare for the evening. After an eternity of waiting, the members of the class began to congregate at the designated place. SUZANNE GARDINER greeted everyone at the door and our party began.

As the last president of the class, VERN SNYDER was given the honor of being master-of-ceremonies.

The Honorable JOE FUDGE, present mayor of the evergrowing city of New Paris, was chairman of the planning committee. The members of the committee were the former NANETTE MARKLEY, who is now married and residing in Brookville, Indiana, JOHN SIMPSON, owner of a small variety store, and LINDA SCHULTZ.

The reunion was held in the glamorous night club, Jips Joint, provided by co-owners PAULA IRELAN and SUE JORDAN. The dance band, conducted by STEVE HAWLEY, consisted of eighteen members. Two were former members of the class, STEVE SNYDER, on triangle, and BOB KELLER, on bagpipes.

The main highlight of the evening was the world renowned vocalist, Katrina Rose! (KATHY ROSE), accompanied by the orchestra.

After a delicious seven-course snack, we danced until dawn, when, weary from the evening, we all retired.

This morning everyone met for brunch where all expressed their regret that you were not able to be present at the reunion.

Well, I must rush home to resume my family responsibilities.

Sincerely,

H. K. Steiner
